Mr. Robert Boyd, of Salem, was Marion Monday. He is a candidate for circuit court clerk of Livingston county, and is evidently well fitted to fill the office, and is an excellent gentleman in all particulars.

Judge Jas. Campbell, McCracken county's candidate for Congress, dressed a large crowd at the art house Monday. He made a splendid speech, and on every hand it was highly complimented those who heard it. The Judge spoke for free coinage of silver, is a pleasant as well as a forcible speaker.

Mrs. O. M. James and E. C.
Lover, two of our coming young attorneys, attended Squire Steven's Saturday; one to prosecute Harrard Williams and defend Boyd and defend Williams for certain infractions of the dignity of the commonwealth—county attorney having to attend court at Marion. The attorney made great fight, and ringing speeches, and both of the accused acquitted.

Democratic Committee Meet.
Monday the Democratic County Committee held a meeting in Marion. About twenty members were present. Mr. J. W. Blue tendered his resignation as chairman, and the same was accepted. Mr. P. S. Maxwell was nominated for the vacant chairmanship, and received the unanimous vote of the committee.
Mr. Maxwell was notified of his election and appointed before the committee. He said that he preferred not to serve as there were other men more suitable for the place, but it was evident that the members of the committee, as representatives of the Democratic party, insisted, he desired to say that he had never yet failed to respond to the call of his party, and that he would accept the position, thank the committee for the honor, and do his best for the party as its chairman. Mr. W. H. Asher tendered his resignation as a member of the committee, stating that he had grown old in the service, and in as much as the weight of years curtailed his activity, he hoped his resignation would be accepted. The resignation was accepted and Mr. J.
D. Asher was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The committee adjourned to meet on the second Monday in May.

ATTENTION G. A. H.
Mr. A. C. Moore was called to Salem Saturday to represent Geo.
Corn in a case involving three dogs.
There was a dispute as to whether the dogs—three hours valued at $0—belonged to Corn or Bolt. The court decided that the canines belonged to Corn.

Last week the Press suggested that a price be placed on plain drunks in Marion. Our officers have undertaken to carry out the suggestion, and the police court has had some business; and Uncle Joe, the jailor, has been turning the jail key more frequently. We heartily commend the officers in their attempt to break up drunkenness on the streets. There is a law against it, and the people will approve of its enforcement.

Wedded.
T. C. Carter and Miss Ella were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. J. B. Carter, of Crittenden County, at 1 p. m. Wednesday; Rev. J. S. Henry officiated.
After the ceremony an elephant was served. Quite a number of the many friends of the groom were present to witness the consummation of the ceremony and to extend sincere congratulations. The bride is a handsome young lady, possessing many virtues that go to the best of wives and adorn the home. The groom is a well-known and popular Baptist minister of the ablest and most promising in the Ohio River area.

A. Letzinger and Miss Columbia were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's brother, H. B. Williams, of this city, Wednesday evening April 12, at 8 p. m. Miss Williams, Letzinger, is a beautiful and amiable young lady, possessing many virtues that go to
the home without making any investments.

Saturday Judge W. W. Robertson addressed the people at the court-house. He made a solid democratic speech; covering all the points involved in the great political questions of the day. He is frank and concise. He speaks at Toln Thursday, Salem, Friday, and Dyersburg Saturday. We bespeak him a good crowd at each place.

A BIG SUIT.

J. H. McKinley Sues the Ohio Valley Railroad for $20,- 000 Damages.

Mr. J. B. McKinley, who was seriously injured by the premature explosion of a dynamite blast at the Ohio Valley railroad rock quarry some months ago, has filed suit in the Crittenden Circuit Court against the railroad company for $20,000 damages. The plaintiff in his petition says that he was employed by the company at the quarry, "at which place the defendant used a dangerous explosive, known as dynamite, for the purpose of blasting said rock or stone, the danger and necessary care and caution in the use of said explosives not being known to the plaintiff, and the defendant wrongfully and negligently failed to apprise and acquaint him, the plaintiff, with the danger attendant upon the use of same, and he says that the defendant had employed a foreman or superintendent at said quarry, who was either not skilled in the use or management of said explosive and business, or was reckless in reference thereto, and the defendant negligently failed to provide the proper tools and implements, and to keep them in proper repair for the safe and proper use of said explosive and business, all of which facts were unknown to the plaintiff at the time, and he says that while he, the plaintiff, was so engaged and employed in obeying the orders of the defendant and without any fault or carelessness on his part, a piece of said dynamite was prematurely exploded by reason of the wilful and gross neglect of the defendant and its agents, charged with the superintendence of said work, in not making such preparations and using such precautions as were necessary and proper for the safety and security of him, the plaintiff, and other employees in and about said works, that by reason of the wilful and gross neglect of the defendant, Miss Mittie Hubbard, of Shady Grove, was the guest of J. B. Hubbard's family Saturday and Sunday.

vices in trying to arrest Horace Walker.

The case of A. L. Charles vs W.
S. Graves, asking for a reduction of jury rates across Cumberland river at

G. S. Brooks and Chas. Humphrey's were appointed road overseers.

Floyd Sheriff Bruce received the tax books for 1892, and there was a short rush to get the first receipt from him for tax. Mr. W. H. Asher carried home the first one, and then came W. D. Gilliland, R. A.
McDaniel, J. F. Loyd, A. L. Mc-Connell, E. J. McConnell, W. L.
White, F. A. Jacobs, W. S. Perkins, Jno. A. Lewis, Jas. Wright, Milton Wright, Jno. D. Lodge, Hugh Brown.

The affable deputy-sheriff, Jeff Asher, is as compassionate and as tender at heart as his hand-some face indicates. While on an official trip near Ford's Ferry recently, he was passing a load, when his attention was attracted by what he thought to be a call in distress. Supposing that he had fallen in the water and become entangled in the undergrowth, Jeff dismounted and went to its assistance; while in search of the distressed animal around the brink of the water, a man came up and was informed of the situation.
The doleful sound which had moved Jeff to tears was music to the second party's ear, and when he informed our officer that it was but the evening song of the bull frog, Jeff put spurs to his horse, and never would have mentioned it.

PUSHING AHEAD.

Messrs. Brown and Ward Haye Faith in Their Mining Enterprise.

Some weeks ago the Press stated that operations had been temporarily suspended at the Tabb lead mines on account of a superabu-dance of water. Since that time the men who represent the capital that is being invested have visited the mines and made a thorough investigation of the prospects. They also visited a number of the big lead mines in Missouri, inspecting the machinery as well as the output of the mines. After thus looking over the field, they have decided to push the work at the Tabb mines on a more stupendous scale, and have accordingly purchased a considerable quantity of new and improved machinery, and are now arranging for putting it in. Additional boilers, larger pumps and hoisters and a crushing machine are among the improvements to be made. All the work is being done in substantial way, and the indications are that this company, gratified with the work and prospects so far, has come to stay.

Salem.

Salem merely exists—but lives and breathes with a vim, characteristic of a healthy growth, and a "coming-to-life" quality.

Mr. editor, Salem is open. It is open to be convinced that it is not the best inland town in this end of the State.

It is open to the honest man, who wants to make one in its midst—but lots are so highly-priced, he won't.

It is open to the "fat of the land and the fullness thereof," as well as mad dogs and traveling men.

It is open to religious communion, and a Union church—in name only.

It is open to no bugs—not even humbugs—yet "Third party men" are sometimes countenanced.

It has the best private school in Livingston county, and with a new academy, Prof. Evans, and able assistants, what an opening there would be!

It is open to intellectual stimulus, and through the efforts of the H. Pardee Library Association, and their rustling agent—C. Hodge—a library has been established and the people are broadening their minds by wholesome reading.

These, and many other things, Mr. Editor, is Salem open to, and yet it plods "the even tenor of its way" without pride, prejudice, or Pharisaical cussedness—but with vim, charity and wide-openness.

You will hear from our merchants next week. More affable ones never passed goods over the counters or pitched money into the drawers. With an abiding faith in the Preso, we are the
